St. James's, January 7.

THE following Addreſs of the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church, and Archdeacon and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Glouceſter, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Reverend the Lord Biſhop of that Dioceſe, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church, and Archdeacon and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Glouceſter.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church, and Archdeacon and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Glouceſter, moſt humbly beg Leave to take this Opportunity, the firſt that we have had ſince the breaking out of the unnatural Rebellion in Scotland, to expreſs jointly to your Majeſty our utmoſt Abhorrence and Deteſtation of this wicked Attempt, which, at the Incitement of our Enemies Abroad, hath been made at Home in Favour of a popiſh and adjur'd Pretender.

We have always been mindful of the ſolemn and juſt Engagements we are under to God, and to your Majeſty, by the Oaths we have taken: And have Hearts full of Gratitude for the very great Bleſſings, Religious and Civil, enjoy'd by us under your Majeſty's juſt and auſpicious Government; on which, as we are certain that we may, with the Bleſſing of God, depend for their being at all Times continued to us; ſo we are not leſs aſſured, that if this Rebellion ſhould meet with Succeſs, which God avert, it would ſoon eſtabliſh both Popery and Arbitrary Power amongſt us. And theſe, joined together, would throw us into Miſery beyond Expreſſion, without any Proſpect of Deliverance from it.

Our earneſt Endeavour therefore hath been, and at all Times ſhall be, as Members of a free Government, and Miniſters of a Proteſtant Church, to oppoſe, as far as in us lies, in our ſeveral Stations, both this and all other Attempts which may be made by this Pretender, or any other Enemies to your Majeſty, our Religion and our Country. Our Labours, our Fortunes, and our Lives, if it ſhall pleaſe God to call us to this Trial, ſhall be devoted to this Purpoſe. And we will carefully improve all Occaſions, which our Functions may afford us, both in publick and in private, to raiſe in our Fellow Subjects a well-grounded Zeal for our holy Religion, a hearty Concern for the Welfare of our Country, with a warm and dutiful Loyalty to your Majeſty. And as the moſt effectual and only ſure Means of making your People firmly loyal and faithful to your Majeſty, we ſhall labour in the firſt Place to make them truly ſenſible of their Duty to God; and we ſhall ſtrive to the utmoſt of our Power to ſtem that Torrent of Vice and Irreligion which has broken in upon us, and has a natural Tendency to diſſolve the Bands of Society, and deſtroy all Government and Authority whatſoever.

At the ſame Time that we are inculcating theſe Principles of Loyalty towards your Majeſty, whom God grant long to reign over us, we ſhall alſo impreſs upon the Minds of the People under our Care, a conſtantly affectionate Attachment to your Royal Houſe; on the happy Increaſe of which, by the ſafe Delivery of her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs of Wales and the Birth of a Prince, we moſt humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty. And as we cannot but deſire to tranſmit the Bleſſings ourſelves enjoy to our lateſt Poſterity, ſo we cannot, for the ſame Reaſon, but fervently wiſh and pray, that, in order thereto, the Sceptre of theſe theſe Kingdoms may for ever be continued in your illuſtrious Houſe; that your Royal Deſcendants may be, under God, the bleſſed Means of ſecuring to all future Ages, that happy Conſtitution in Church and State, which your Majeſty now preſerves inviolate to us.

His Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle having received by the Penny Poſt a Letter dated the 6th Inſtant, and ſigned C. D.; if the Perſon who wrote the ſaid Letter will make himſelf known to his Grace, he may depend upon the ſtricteſt Secrecy, and upon all fitting Encouragement.

Edinburgh, Jan. 2. The Number of the Rebels arrived at Glaſgow, by a Medium of ſeveral Computations, is about 3600 Foot, and near 500 Horſe, including 50 or 60 employed in carrying their Sick. Their Horſes are poor and jaded, and 6 or 700 of their Foot have no Arms or Ability to uſe them. Some hundreds of their Friends have paſſed the Forth in their Way to Glaſgow; and on Saturday laſt the Perſon called Duke of Perth, with a Party of about 150, went from Glaſgow, and it is reported he is got home. Small Parties are continually paſſing that Way, whether deſerting or marching to Perth is not known. However it is certain that they have loſt ſeveral by Deſertion and Death ſince they arrived at Glaſgow, where they have alſo inliſted about 50 or 60, who took on with them for Want of Bread. Their Demands upon Glaſgow for Broad cloth, Tartan, Linnen, Bonnets, and Shoes, amount to near 10,000 l. Sterling in Value; beſides which, they ſay they muſt have a Sum of Money. They have aſſeſs'd Provoſt Buchannan in 500 l. for promoting the new Levies on the Behalf of the Government, and have been very outragious againſt all thoſe who appeared zealous and active in raiſing them, by plundering and burning their Houſes, deſtroying their Goods and Furniture, and (where they could not carry off their Proviſions) by ſpoiling them in a moſt unheard-of Manner, which, ſo far from having the Effect they propoſed, has greatly increaſed the Spirit againſt them. They give out that they are to attack Stirling, and on Monday Noon the Cannon from Perth was moved towards that Place, amongſt which are two Pieces of 8 Pounders, two of 12, two of 16, all Braſs, beſides Iron Cannon, and a large Quantity of Powder and Ball; the Rebels from Perth marched therewith. The Priſoners who were at Perth are ſent to Glames. Here are Advices here, that the Rebels had got ſome of their Military Stores, particularly Iron Cannon and Ball, from Montroſe by Sea to Perth, and that they had fitted out the Hazard Sloop, and a Privateer at Montroſe, which were ready to put to Sea, and that they were alſo fitting out an armed Sloop at Perth. At this laſt Place they have fortify'd Oliver's Mount, and have from 100 to 200 Country People daily employed in fortifying the whole Town. As ſoon as we heard that the firſt Diviſion of the Troops ſent to this Place from Marſhal Wade's Army had paſſed Newcaſtle, we began to repair the Fortifications of this City, and gave Notice to the People in the Country, upon whom we could depend, to be in Readineſs to come hither for the Defence of the City. The Friends to the the Rebels in these Parts sent Express after Express to them to Glasgow, to hasten their march hither, and on Monday Night we had Intelligence that they had called in their Cloathing half made, and packed it up, which we took for a Signal of their March. Thereupon the Militia was called into the City, and more came than we could quarter. Horses were ordered out to meet the first Division of Troops, and Relays were ready for them upon the Road, which the Country People contributed with great Chearfulness; and this Morning Two Regiments of the first Division arrived here mounted on the Horses before-mentioned from Dunbar, and were received with Huzzas, Illuminations, &c. The Soldiers are all hearty. They were entertained at Dunbar, and Half-way Place at Aberlady, at the Expence of the County of East Lothian, and this Night will be so at the Expence of the City; so that now we think ourselves quite safe from the Rebels. The Glasgow Regiment is here, and makes a very fine Appearance. It consists of upwards of 500, all young able-bodied Men, who perform their Exercise extremely well, and do Duty with the Regular Troops, besides 160 Volunteers from Paisly. They shew'd a great Spirit in marching hither, when it appeared impracticable to defend Glasgow. There certainly has been a Skirmish between the Rebels near Aberdeen, and a Part of Lord Loudoun's Men commanded by the Lairds of Macleod and Calcairn; it is said to have ended to the Disadvantage of the latter, who were inferior in Numbers. There are however as yet no Accounts of that Affair but what the Rebels give; the most sanguine of whom say, it was a total Route; others, that about 20 on each Side were killed, and about 60 of our Men taken Prisoners. The Argyllshire Men are now ready to co-operate with our Troops.

Admiral Byng, who is now in Leith Road, is preparing to go out again to Sea; the Milford and Bridgwater, who were left cruizing off Montrose, will, it is hoped, be able to prevent the Rebels from receiving any Supply at Perth, and sending out any Ships to Sea; and in two or three Days Admiral Byng will have another 40 Gun Ship, and two of 20, cruizing upon that Coast; and this Morning the Shark will go out to cruize off Red Hed, Arbroth, and the River Tay.

Newcastle, Jan. 4. The first Division of the ten Battalions, which marched from hence for Edinburgh, arrived there the 1st Instant. The second, it is supposed, will be there either this Day or To-morrow. The third by the 9th, and Lord Cobham's Regiment of Dragoons will arrive there the Day after. The Regiments of Scotch Fuzileers and Sempil will be here the 6th; which, after resting one Day, will proceed to Edinburgh to join General Hawley's Body, which will then consist of three Regiments of Dragoons and 14 Battalions, besides the Country Forces. A great Number of the Rebels are said to have deserted, and returned to their Habitations.

THURSDAY, January 9, 1745.

Petersbourg, December 14.

MAJOR General Bredlach arrived here from Vienna on Wednesday last in the Night, and made his first Visit to the Chancellor Yesterday.

Florence, Dec. 21, N. S. The Letters received this Morning from Rome bring an Account, that the Difficulties which the Pope had made about acknowledging the Emperor being removed, the Pope had publickly acknowledged the Emperor on the 15th Instant, to the Satisfaction of the greatest Part of the City of Rome. In the Consistory which the Pope held upon this Occasion, he pronounced a Latin Discourse in Praise of the Emperor, and the House of Lorrain; after which Te Deum was sung in his Chappel. Great Rejoicings and Illuminations were made upon the Occasion at the Quirinal, and by the College of Cardinals.

Florence, Dec. 28, N. S. On the 17th past, Te Deum was sung at the Imperial Church Dell Anima in Rome, for the Election of the Emperor, by Order of Cardinal Albani. Twenty two Cardinals, Thirty two Prelates, the Venetian and Bologna Ambassadors, the Prince of Santa Croce, the Portuguese, Saxon, Bavarian and Tuscan Ministers, and many of the Chief Nobility, were present at the Ceremony. In the Evening of the 24th, Count Woronzoff, Vice-Chancellor of Russia, with his Lady and Daughter, arrived in this City from Bologna. On the 25th Prince Craon, and the other Members of the Regency, the foreign Ministers, and Officers, were to compliment him upon his Arrival. On the 28th he proceeded to Rome in his Way to Naples.

Florence, Dec. 28, N. S. On Thursday Night Captain Weller, Commander of the Marines on board his Britannick Majesty's Squadron in the Mediterranean, with M. de Borris a Corsican, arrived here with Letters from Captain Townshend, then in the Harbour of St. Fiorenzo in Corsica, with an Account, that the Tower of Mortella had surrendred upon the Approach of some English Men of War; that the Essex and Nonsuch having attacked the Castle of St. Fiorenzo, it had capitulated; and that Ajaccio, a very good Port in Corsica, had also surrendred.

Venice, Dec. 30, N. S. The Citadel of Milan is blockaded, some of the Gates of the City are walled up, and the Infant only waits the Arrival of Cannon, which is coming by Water from Valence, and other Places, to begin the Siege.

Bern, Jan. 1, N. S. The Day before Yesterday two Senators and two Members of the Great Council were deputed to acquaint Mr. Burnaby the British Minister here, that, conformably to his Request, Orders had been issued and sent to their Officers in the French Service in Flanders, strictly forbidding them, on Pain of incurring the utmost Displeasure of the Republick, to suffer so much as a single Soldier to be embarked at Dunkirk, or elsewhere, under any Pretence whatsoever.

Vienna, Jan. 1, N. S. The Ratifications of the Treaty with Prussia were sent to Dresden on the 30th past, as were likewise Orders to Marshal Traun to make a considerable Detachment to Italy under the Command of General Brown. This Detachment, with the Regiments to be added out of Prince Charles's Army, will, exclusive of the Recruits, compose a Body of 20,000 effective Men at least, and it is proposed they should be in Italy by the Beginning of February.

Dresden, Jan. 2, N. S. M. Podewils received a Courier the 31st past, with Orders from the King his Master to return to Berlin, without waiting for the Arrival of the King of Poland or Count Bruhl, and he accordingly set out Yesterday, leaving with the English Minister Mr. Villiers, his Prussian Majesty's Act of Ratification, to exchange with that of the Empress which
